Education Travel – Study Tours

Edu Travel Study Tour Overview

Our Edu Travel Study Tours are a combination of a unique travel experience with a number of specific learning goals. In addition to enjoying the breathtaking sights and scenery China has to offer, you also learn to master "survival Chinese" – meaning you can handle basic everyday conversations and transactions.

The combination of the two will give you the chance to meet new friends and a greater understanding of modern Chinese culture in the hugely exciting capital city!

China Educators offers study tour programs for individuals or groups who want to study Mandarin Chinese and enjoy structured tours of Beijing arranged by local experts.
